

"Day 1: Cochin Reach Cochin. Visit the Old city of Cochin for half day site seeing viz Mattancherry Palace (Dutch Palace), Jewish Synagogue, Chinese Fishing Nets and St. Francis Church. Overnight at Cochin. Reach Cochin. Visit the Old city of Cochin for half day site seeing viz Mattancherry Palace (Dutch Palace), Jewish Synagogue, Chinese Fishing Nets and St. Francis Church. Overnight at Cochin. Day 2: Cochin → Munnar Proceed to Munnar (130 kms. from Cochin). Local site seeing. Visit to Tea Gardens and Tea Museum / Processing Unit (please ask for assistance at your Resort reception). Day 3: Munnar Visit Top Station, Mattupetty Dam, Kundale. Top Station is the highest point on the Munnar-Kodaikanal road. It offers you a magnificent view of the distant valley of Kerala and Tamilnadu. Mattupetty is known for its highly specialised dairy farm-the Indo Swiss Livestock Project. The Mattupetty lake has boating facilities. Kundale too is famous for its lovely lakes and thickly packed forests around it. Day 4: Munnar → Eravikulam - Munnar Eravikulam National Park spread over 97 sq km in the Rajamalai hills is known for its star specie Nilgiri Tahr - an endangered species of mountain goats. The rolling hills of the park are most enjoyable for a long walk. You may take packed lunch with you. Overnight at Munnar. Day 5: Munnar → Thekkady (Periyar) Visit Periyar National Park (100 kms), known for its dense evergreen forest and rich wildlife. This is the only sanctuary in India where you can have the unique experience of viewing wildlife at close quarters from the safety of a boat on the lake. The greatest attraction of Periyar, however, are the herds of wild Elephants that come to the Lake to drink water. You can also see mammal species like Indian Gaur, Wild Boars, Spotted Deer, Sambar and many aquatic birds. Day 6: Periyar → Alleppey / Kumarakom Another attraction at Periyar is the guided visit to Spice Plantations. Kumily, closest village to Periyar, has a good market for shopping of spices. Alleppey / Kumarakom (100 kms from Munnar) is the best place to enjoy famed Kerala backwaters. The Kerala Backwaters are a network of interconnected canals, rivers, lakes and inlets, an intricate system formed by more than 900km of waterways. These all are lined with Coconut Trees making the landscape most beautiful to experience. Coconut Trees along the backwaters, cool breeze, village coir industries make the holidays spent at Backwaters most memorable. Overnight at Alleppey / Kumarakom Day 7: Alleppey / Kumarakom World famous backwaters of Kerala can be best experienced from the luxury houseboat stay. Houseboats are made of eco-friendly material and they are as big as 70 feet in length. Each houseboat has fully furnished rooms with sun-deck and private balcony. The crew of two oarsmen and a chef, who specializes in traditional Kerala cuisine, make your stay truly memorable one. Day 8: Alleppey → Cochin Proceed to Cochin (70 km)."